Aurland

'Sort Kraft'

Oil on canvas

57 x 47 cm

Norwegian. Chianciano 2012 awards, works on paper, 3rd prize. Aurland's art is powerful and mysterious. Her paintings often have a mist about them and the theme of her works is often on exploration of the relationships between people. 'Lately, I've been working with the relation between stroke and shape, and tried to separate the issues. I have been in a process where I've explored what the surface and areas of the painting mean to me.'
